

JOIN US FOR A FREE LUNCH & LEARN

TO HEAR ABOUT THE RESULTS OF NY'S SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION TO EMPLOYMENT PARTNERSHIP (STEP) PROJECT

Wednesday
April 24, 2024

12:00 -
1:00 pm EST

Register in advance:
[https://urmc.zoom.us/
webinar/register/WN
bokbg\_AaTvy7753xlo
61-g](https://urmc.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_bokbg_AaTvy7753xlo61-g)

SPEAKERS

Kaitlyn Jackson,
Cornell University's Yang-Tan Institute
on Employment and Disability

Marilee Boylan,
University of Rochester Medical Center's
Strong Center for Developmental Disabilities

Webinar Overview

The STEP Project implemented a comprehensive review and analysis of the landscape of New York State's employment transition systems for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. This webinar will share the results of the study, which includes multiple data sources as well as programmatic and policy recommendations.

Contact: Kaitlyn Jackson at kjackson@cornell.edu

Strong Center for Developmental Disabilities

This project was funded through Grant No 90DUC0088 from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Community Living. The views and opinions expressed during the webinar are solely those of the speakers.