

ACCESS/FUNCTIONAL NEEDS PLANNING WORKSHOP

No. of OPENINGS: 30

ONEIDA COUNTY

4 HOURS

AUGUST 7, 2015

ANNOUNCED: JUNE 4, 2015

Description:

This session will identify the history, driving force and concept behind Access/Functional Needs (AFN) planning and preparedness. Participants will learn the impetus behind this effort, clarify the regulatory requirements, and learn to incorporate the needed planning elements that each jurisdiction should address through their local stakeholders and partnerships.

This is new instruction based on Federal mandate, AFN planning review checklists, and an understanding of what State guidance/assistance may be available in times of need through the ARC and the State Human Services Branch.

Course Curriculum and Topics:

NYS Legal Basis for Planning, Federal planning guidance, ADA mandate, planning review tool.

Prerequisites:

Participants are recommended to complete the following FEMA Independent Study (IS) courses: IS-700.a, NIMS, An Introduction, and IS-800.B. To enhance the learning experience, participants should also review FEMA guidance. All links are available here:
