

Dentistry at the University of Rochester
Iranpour Award for Excellence in Clinical Education

Objective:

To recognize a part-or full-time Eastman Department of Dentistry faculty member for demonstrating sustained excellence in clinical education.

Selection Process:

An award committee consisting of division chiefs and representation from the residents/students will request applications for this award on a yearly basis. The award is presented only in the years when there is a qualified candidate.

Criteria:

The selected faculty member should:

1. Demonstrate excellent communication skills and interaction with residents and students;
2. Spend a significant component of time actively providing clinical education;
3. Demonstrate a genuine concern and interest for resident/student clinical education;
4. Be very knowledgeable and skill in his or her area of expertise;
5. Be respected by residents/students, peers, and staff;
6. Be a patient advocate, assuring high quality care; and
7. Have a high standard of ethics.