

WILMOT
CANCER CENTER

Give us one morning. We'll answer the most important questions about breast health.

Your best defense against breast cancer is knowledge. And at the 3rd Annual Breast Health Day, we'll help you get the knowledge you need. Doctors and specialists from the Comprehensive Breast Care Center at the Wilmot Cancer Center will discuss the key questions you should ask to ensure you receive the very best care. Plus, they'll share thoughts on providing support for those touched by the disease. It'll be a morning filled with information that will help you to be better prepared and more relaxed.
