

What if I am allergic to flu shots?

Eggs are used to make flu vaccines. If you experienced severe allergic reaction to eggs or to a previous flu shot or experienced Guillain-Barre syndrome (paralysis), then you should talk to your doctor first before getting flu vaccine. Also, if you are concerned about thimerosal, a preservative in the vaccine, ask you doctor for thimerosal-free shots.