

Year 1*Clinical Activities at SMH:

6 mon Consultation Liaison
 6 mon Inpatient Child & Adolescent Psychiatry
 In addition, the resident carries an ongoing caseload of outpatients.

Call per month: Second call; one week per month

Supervision: Two hours of individual and family supervision and one to two hours of supervision with a preceptor.

Didactic activities:

lectures/year	# of
<input type="checkbox"/> Issues in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry
<input type="checkbox"/> Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Emergencies	12
<input type="checkbox"/> Psychopharmacology	7
<input type="checkbox"/> Child Psychopathology	25
<input type="checkbox"/> Research Seminar	8
<input type="checkbox"/> Child Development Seminar and Practicum	30
<input type="checkbox"/> Treatment Techniques	40
<input type="checkbox"/> Child Psychotherapy
<input type="checkbox"/> Child-Centered Family Therapy
<input type="checkbox"/> Behavioral Modification and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
<input type="checkbox"/> Seminar in Consultation Liaison	20

In addition, the Child Psychiatry Division Teaching Conference, Child Journal Club, and Clinical Case Conference occur monthly, except during the summer. A variety of Departmental workshops also occur in which residents may participate, including the mandatory Ethnicity and Cultural Diversity.

Year 2*Clinical Activities: (SMH and Community Based)

6 mon	St. Joseph's Villa Residential Treatment	12 hrs/wk
4-6 mon	Crestwood Children's Center - Preschool Day Treatment	12 hr/wk
3 mon	Livingston County Mobile Crisis Intervention	6 hr/wk
6 mon	Psychopharmacology @ SMH	3 hr/wk
6 mon	Research	8 hr/wk
6 mon	Unity Health Community Mental Health Center	8/wk
3 mon	Monroe County Children's Shelter (forensic psychiatry)	4 hr/wk
3 mon	Anthony Jordan HealthLink	4 hr/wk

In addition, the resident carries an ongoing outpatient caseload.

Call per month: Second call; one week per month

Supervision: One to two hours of individual and family supervision and one to two hours of supervision with a preceptor.

Didactic activities:

	# of lectures/yr
<input type="checkbox"/> Community Child Psychiatry	18 (every other wk)
<input type="checkbox"/> Clinical Case Conference in Psychopharmacology	18 (every other wk)
<input type="checkbox"/> Classic Readings in Child Psychiatry	40

In addition, the Child Psychiatry Division Teaching Conference, Child Journal Club, and Clinical Case Conference occur monthly, except in the summer. A variety of Departmental workshops also occur in which residents may participate, including the mandatory Ethnicity and Cultural Diversity.