

Sponsored by
The Department of Psychiatry's
Office of Mental Health Promotion

Call for High School Artists

"Through My Eyes"

Photo of Strong Behavioral Health Gallery location

Submission Deadline: March 10, 2014

Located on the 1st floor of Strong Behavioral Health

Show Duration: March 2014-May 2014

As a part of the Department of Psychiatry, the Office of Mental Health Promotion (OMHP) aims to provide a space for local artists to display their artwork while at the same time creating a lovely and therapeutic environment for the patients, families and employees of Strong Behavioral Health.

High school artists are asked to create work that reflects the show's title, "Through My Eyes". Only 2D, less than 1 inch thick mediums will be considered, including works on paper, un-stretched canvas, and masonite. Frames are provided and locked. There are 2 frame sizes 18x20" and 20x24" with preset orientations. If chosen, we will give you direction on your artwork's orientation and matting size.

Submit up to three images of artwork. The art will be juried for Best in Show and Top Juror's Picks by the Department of Psychiatry and a select community artist. Feel free to come and preview our gallery or call with questions before submitting. Visit our website for more details

<http://www.urmc.rochester.edu/psychiatry/outreach/omhp/BridgeArtGallery.cfm>

Please send digital images and submission form to Jessica Poweski at omhpromotion@gmail.com

