Postdoctoral Program Admissions

Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit with your program. This description must be consistent with the program's policies on intern selection and practicum and academic preparation requirements:
We are committed to the development of psychologist leaders who have sufficient breadth and depth of clinical knowledge to assume full responsibility for patient care, teaching, and administration of clinical programs in a variety of health care and community settings, including integrated care and schools. Depending on the track selected and the professional goals of the applicant, trainees may also gain continued exposure to clinical research in a variety of areas. This year we will offer advanced education and training in the following substantive areas of clinical psychology; Child and Adolescent Psychology and Integrated Care Family Psychology.

Describe any other required minimum criteria used to screen applicants:
Our fellowship adheres to the APPIC guidelines and utilizes the APPA CAS (APPIC Psychology Postdoctoral application). Successful candidates come from an APA accredited doctoral (PhD or PsyD) program in the area of clinical, counseling, or school psychology. The clinical internship year is also expected to be from an APA accredited program.
