The Mountaintop

a play by Katori Hall

A soul-stirring reimagining of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s last night on earth. After delivering one of his most memorable speeches, an exhausted King retires to his room at the Lorraine Motel. A visit from the feisty hotel maid compels him to confront his own doubts, destiny and legacy. Winner of the Olivier Award for Best Play and a hit in London and on Broadway, dramatic, magical storytelling gives insight into King, the man, and reaches a summit that will leave audiences breathless.

3) Post-Play discussion with UR faculty, at GEVA

(plus backstage visit)
