

James R. Woods, Jr., M.D.

Professor, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology
University of Rochester Medical Center

James R. Woods, Jr., M.D. is Professor and past Chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry in Rochester, New York. Dr. Woods has authored or co-authored over one hundred forty articles on communication in medicine, maternal drug addiction, complications of pregnancy, clinical research, and menopause medicine. Since 1991, he has been the Editor-in-Chief of the periFACTS Ob/Gyn Academy, an international online educational program for obstetric and gynecologic care providers that includes articles, clinical case studies, grand rounds lectures, and teaching videos. In 1996, an endowed chair honoring Dr. Woods was established at the University of Rochester. He has been named in Best Doctors in America for many years. In 2010, Dr. Woods was honored by the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists with the Outstanding Service Award for District II for his "tireless efforts in the area of obstetric patient safety." In 2012, he received the lifetime achievement award from the District II American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. Dr. Woods has lectured extensively on communication in obstetrics and menopause management. His textbook contributions include volumes in communication in medicine, obstetric management, menopause biology, and breast cancer care.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Chairman Emeritus, Professor, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Chief of Gynecology Menopause Practice Titled UR Medicine: Menopause and Women's Health
Editor-in-Chief, periFACTS OB/GYN Academy, 1991-present
