

Our February Newsletter is dedicated to Nurses

Our newsletter format will feature important industry news, periFACTS® programs and books, and a sneak peek into what's new this month for our monthly subscribers!

In The News

Nurses stay at Gallup's Top Spot for Honesty and Ethics

In the poll, 79% of Americans who participated in the survey rated nurse honesty and ethics as very high or high. This year, nurses still far surpassed the professions — medical doctors (62%) and pharmacists (58%) — ranked second and third, respectively.

Schools Bolster Nursing Degree Programs

Nursing degree programs have been added or expanded at colleges and universities in several states.

Becker's Hospital Review (1/2023)

Nursing Ethics: The Value of Beneficence

The American Nurses Association Code of Ethics outlines seven ethical principles to guide nursing care. If the ethical principle of beneficence conflicts with the principles of autonomy or non-maleficence, nurses must use clinical judgment as a guide to respecting a patient's rights and avoiding unnecessary while providing the best care possible.

Government Funding Helps Train More Nurses Amid Faculty Shortage

COVID widened the growing gap between care needs and nursing staff across the nation. Now, many states are stepping in with beefed-up budgets and new programs to build faculty and clinical placements. Interest in nursing isn't the problem.

Subscription access to the entire calendar year starts 1/1/2023 and is valid for active, paid subscribers with a subscription valid through Dec 31, 2023. 2023 renewals will be billed to extend 2023 subscriptions to access the entire year, at a pro-rated cost. All billing will be for a calendar year, not a full year, starting 1/1/2023. Calendar year access requires a full year payment to receive the Jan-Dec 2023 curriculums. Subscriptions that start February 1, 2023 or later will receive access to the month of purchase curriculum and all future 2023 month's curriculums only. Subscribers must pay for a full calendar year in order to access every 2023 curriculum, 12 total. No refunds. Subscribers who fail to pay will lose access to all curriculums and modules, including completed courses and certificates.*
