

Modern Miracles: Music and Medicine

Date: Saturday, September 24, 2016

Time: 7:00p.m.

Place: Hatch Hall at the Eastman School of Music

Cost: $25 per person

Performing in this benefit concert for the Golisano Children's Hospital are Connor Freeman, ECMS bass soloist, heart survivor and grandson to Robert Freeman, former Director of the Eastman School of Music. Connor will be accompanied by Hana Chu (piano) recipient of a Wollenberg Saphar Memorial Scholarship at the Eastman School of Music.

Also performing:

Dr. Michelle Shayne (Soprano); Associate Professor of Oncology at URM
Dr. Vincent Reale (Violin); Emeritus Professor of Surgery at URM
Dr. George Abraham (Piano); Retired Head of Oncology at URM with Ji-Yeon Lee (Violin); member of the RPO and Brian Gadbow (Cello) ESM Class of 2020.

Purchase tickets online at:

www.EastmanTheatre.org or by calling the Eastman Theatre Box Office at (585) 454-2100.

All proceeds from this performance are tax deductible and benefit the Golisano Children's Hospital general fund.