

Smoking and nicotine can contribute to chronic prostate inflammation, which can increase prostate cancer risk.

Looking to Reduce Your Habit or Quit?

Helping men quit smoking/vaping starts with offering an effective, easy-to-access program that provides information and support personalized to their needs.

Our Center provides comprehensive nicotine cessation services, with a team of experts ready to support you.

Call us at (585) 602-0720.

Center for Community Health & Prevention

