Research Coordinator Development Initiative (RCDI) – Continuous Improvement of Coordinator Support and Learning

The RDCI is a CTSI-facilitated effort to professionalize and support the role of Research Coordinator at the University of Rochester. The first project of this initiative was the development of the Human Subject Research Coordinator job series, launched in April 2014. Come learn about how you can contribute to the next project of the Initiative—Standardizing Competency-Based Training.

Facilitated by:

John Lanphere
Sr. Director, Operations Excellence

Eric P Rubinstein JD MPH
CTSI Executive Director for Research Services and Financial Administration

Thursday, April 13, 2017
(Duplicate Sessions Offered)

Discussion: 12:00pm – 1:00pm
Network: 1:00pm – 1:30pm
SRB 1.416

Discussion: 3:00pm – 4:00pm
Network: 4:00pm – 4:30 pm
URMC 2-7544

Conversation objectives:
1. Learn about utilizing process-improvement approaches to systematically document needs and develop solutions; and
2. Identify the goals and next steps for the next RCDI project: Standardizing Competency-Based Training.

For questions about SCORE, or to request accommodations to attend this event (for example: ASL services), please email SCORE@urmc.rochester.edu by 4pm, Monday, April 10, 2017.

SCORE is sponsored by the CTSI as a coordinator-run forum to create opportunities for sharing, learning, and connecting with peer research coordinators.