

Welcome to our GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION (GME) Residency Training Program site.

Our GME Residency Training Programs are designed for dentists who obtained their dental degree from a dental school in either the United States and/or Canada that is accredited by the American Dental Association's (ADA) Commission on Dental Accreditation (CODA). GME residents receive a stipend (annual salary) and are eligible for employee benefits.

The following GME Residency Training Programs are available at the Eastman Institute for Oral Health. Valuable information can be found within each of the links and we hope as you begin to review your options that you consider EIOH in helping you to achieve the next level in your dental education!

Advanced Education in General Dentistry Program (AEGD) (AGDTPR *)
General Practice Residency (GPR) (AGDTPR *)
Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (OMFS)
Orthodontics and Dentofacial Orthopedics
Pediatric Dentistry
Periodontics
Prosthodontics

* The AEGD and GPR programs offer dental training opportunities through the Associated General Dentistry Training Program of Rochester (AGDTPR) in conjunction with Rochester General Hospital's GPR GME program. The AGDTPR was formed to develop cooperative programs in recruitment, didactic course work, clinical activities and securing educational grants.

Information on how to apply to any of these programs can be found by clicking on the "How to Apply" link on the left side of this page.

We here at EIOH look forward to assisting you as you explore your GME residency training options.
