

Annual Faculty Development Colloquium in the Health Professions

Wednesday, June 7, 2023 | 8:00 AM – 1:00 PM

---

Plenary Speaker

Alice Fornari, EdD, FAMEE, RDN, HEC-C Optimizing the Power of the Learning Environment: From Safe to Brave Spaces

Professor, Science Education, Occupational Health, Family Medicine
Associate Dean, Educational Skills Development,
Zucker School of Medicine at Hofstra/Northwell
Vice President, Faculty Development, Northwell Health
Program Director, MSEd Degree, Health Professions Education, Hofstra
University, School of Health Professions and Human Services

This annual Colloquium brings together faculty, educators, and healthcare professionals to share best practices. A thought-provoking plenary session and panel discussion, and workshops covering a variety of topics will help renew and support Colloquium participants in their professional roles. Poster presentations will foster networking and the interchange of ideas.

Call for Proposals Submission Deadline: March 31, 2023

You are invited to submit a proposal for the 2023 Annual Faculty Development Colloquium. Submissions may cover any topic in health professions education and faculty development.

Categories for Submissions:

- Workshops - Workshops provide an interactive, active learning small group experience to allow participants to take home specific knowledge and skills. The workshops are 75 minutes in duration. Proposals should include: title of the workshop, presenter(s) names, degrees, titles, a short description, and learning objectives.
- Poster Presentations - Posters are mounted throughout the Conference. Presenters are asked to be present during the lunch poster viewing session. Please submit title of the poster, presenter(s) names, degrees, and titles, names of co-authors, and abstract.

Please submit proposals electronically at faculty\_development@urmc.rochester.edu

All Faculty, Students, Residents, Fellows, and Staff are invited to attend.
Full program and registration information will be available in April.

Please contact the Office for Faculty Development with any questions.