

UR Clinical and Translational Science Institute and URSMD Office for Faculty Development

present

Rochester Early Stage INvestigator (RESIN) Seminar

Conducting Clinical and Translational Research:
How the CTSI can Help

Wednesday, July 14, 2021

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

Zoom link: <https://rochester.zoom.us/j/92928891053>

Presented by:

Carrie Dykes, PhD

Director of Research Services

Clinical and Translational Science Institute

Jeanne Holden-Wiltse, MPH, MBA

Director of Informatics

Executive Director for the Center for Leading Innovation & Collaboration

Clinical and Translational Science Institute

Edwin van Wijngaarden, PhD

Professor and Associate Chair of Public Health Sciences

Professor of Environmental Medicine, Pediatrics, Dentistry

and in the Center for Community Health and Prevention

Strategic Director for Research Education at the Clinical and Translational Science Institute

To register for this seminar <https://forms.gle/2bYCbyVw1fFqKg4V9>

The Rochester Early Stage INvestigator (RESIN) program is designed to optimize and support the training of early stage investigators across departments and centers.