

Save the Date

Symposium on Well-Being and Burnout Prevention

“Well-Being 2.0: Moving Forward with Impactful Strategies”
Wednesday, February 16, 2022 | 8:30 AM – 1:00 PM

Co-sponsored by the Monroe County Medical Society and the University of Rochester Medical Center

Plenary Speaker

Lotte N. Dyrbye, MD, MHPE, FACP

Director, Academy of Educational Excellence
Assistant Dean, Faculty Development,
Mayo School of Graduate Medical Education
Co-Director, Program on Physician Well-Being
Professor of Medicine and Medical Education
Consultant, Division of Primary Care Internal Medicine
Mayo Clinic

This virtual symposium will bring together academics, educators, and practitioners from a variety of fields for a collaborative, multidisciplinary exploration of the ways to support the well-being of clinicians, faculty, and learners, and to share best practices.

Watch for full program and registration information, and a call for proposals for short communications.