Department of Emergency Medicine
Research and Academic News

MARCH 2015

Congratulations!

Joe Konwinski has been named the ED Safety and Quality Officer. He will be working with the ED and Hospital Leadership Teams to drive forward our goals of excellence in safety and quality of our patient care and patient care environment.

Publications

Presentations

Jeffrey Moon and Jeremy Cushman’s research, Prehospital and Emergency Department Outcomes of Patients Receiving Intranasal Naloxone by Fire Department First Responders, was presented at the National EMS Physician (NAEMSP) Annual Meeting on January 22.

Ryan Bodkin and Evan Leventhal’s abstract, Comparison of Manual Versus Automated Procedure Logging for Emergency Medicine Residents, was accepted to the Council of Residency Directors Annual Meeting from April 13-16 in Phoenix, Arizona.

American College of Medical Toxicology Conference (March 27-29) Accepted Presentations:

