Choose Your Own Misadventure

Live Webinar

Thursday March 26, 2026 @ 9:50a.m.

Faculty: Arthur Cooper, MD, Craig Katz, MD & William Valenti, MD

Educational Objectives:

- Differentiate between common community illnesses and high-consequence travel-related pathogens based on clinical presentation and risk history.
- Apply public health reporting and regulatory mandates—including school exclusions and bio-containment protocols—within non-hospital community settings.
- Develop strategies to mitigate psychological distress, provider moral injury, and community stigma triggered by high-mortality infectious outbreaks.
