

UNIVERSITY of ROCHESTER
MEDICAL CENTER

Effective Communication In Radiological Events Workshop

The University of Rochester Medical Center, in partnership with the Radiation Injury Treatment Network, is offering a free training course on Effective Communications in Radiological Events.

Date: May 22nd, 2025

Time: 9:00 a.m -3:00 p.m. (Lunch Provided)

Location: James P. Wilmot Cancer Center Room 2.0727 (Formicola)
90 Crittenden Blvd.
Rochester, NY 14642

Course Agenda:

- Introductions and workshop overview
- Understanding radiation - its mechanisms and impacts
- Unpacking the complexities of radiation communications
- Word Association and Earning Trust during a Radiological Event
- Perception variations in communication: People see things differently
- Developing a strong message
- Q&A

Scan the QR code or click the link below to register. There is no cost for attendance. Lunch will be provided.

Effective Communication in
Radiological Events Workshop

Effective Communication in
Radiological Events Workshop
Registration

