

Matthew Wiley, MPA, AEMT
Section Chief
New York State Department of Health
Bureau of Emergency Medical Services
Emergency Preparedness and Response Section

Matt currently serves as the Emergency Preparedness and Response Chief for the NYSDOH Bureau of EMS and Trauma Systems, as well as the Emergency Preparedness Manager for the Office's of Primary Care and Health System Management and Aging and Long Term Care.

Matt has over 15 years of emergency management experience, starting his career in volunteer EMS as an EMT in both a 911 system and mass gathering special events, holding roles of Lieutenant and Advanced Life Support Coordinator. Currently an Advanced EMT, Matt holds a Masters in Public Administration in Homeland Security from SUNY Albany's Rockefeller College of Public Affairs and Policy and a Certificate in Emergency Management from SUNY Albany's College of Emergency Preparedness, Homeland Security and Cybersecurity.