

Kim Wallenstein, MD, Ph.D.
Pediatric Trauma Medical Director
Upstate Golisano Children's Hospital

Kim Wallenstein is a board-certified pediatric surgeon who joined Upstate in 2010 as an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics and surgeon at the Olivia Pietrafesa Children's Surgery Center at Upstate Golisano Children's Hospital. A Boston-area native, she earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Pennsylvania, and her medical degree and doctorate from Tufts University School of Medicine in Boston. She has done pediatric residencies and research fellowships at some of the nation's leading children's hospitals, including Cincinnati Children Hospital Medical Center, where she completed a fetal surgery fellowship, and St. Christopher's Hospital for Children where she completed her pediatric surgery residency. As the Pediatric Trauma Medical Director at Upstate Medical University, she is in charge of the area's only Level 1 Pediatric Trauma Center. She serves as a committee member in several national trauma societies, and is a member of the New York State Trauma Advisory Committee.