Golisano Pediatric Behavioral Health and Wellness building opens

“This new facility will help us implement a comprehensive strategy that focuses on early recognition and treatment, as well as community partnerships, to reduce the number of children at risk, and give families new reason to hope,” says Michael Scharf, MD, chief of the Division of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry.

Learn more »

URMC to launch new COVID-19 vaccine trial

In June, URMC began trials of a new coronavirus vaccine, and is set to launch a second trial in August. Faculty members Angela Branche, MD, and Ann Falsey, MD, recently discussed these and other studies, including efforts to involve vaccine trial volunteers, on Connections, an NPR program.

Learn more »

UR technology helps Rochester and nation reopen

Local officials, and employers across the state, can advance reopening efforts with COVID-19 tracking technology developed at the University of Rochester.

Learn more »

UR designated an Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Research Center

The new Center will further advance research to better diagnose and treat conditions like autism, as well as provide access to cutting-edge care.

Learn more »

Highland Hospital Golf Classic

Monday, August 10

The annual tournament includes a round of golf on Monroe Golf Club’s Donald Ross-designed course, lunch and drinks on the turn, and a takeout meal at the end of play. Social distancing regulations will be enforced.

Learn More »

Social media spotlight

UR Medicine

For the first time, the University of Rochester Medical Center (URMC) will be able to offer patients an in-patient stay for any of its nine hospitals.

Learn More »

Make a gift to the URMC COVID-19 Emergency Fund

The University of Rochester Medical Center (URMC) is seeking $10 million in donations to bring COVID-related research and clinical care to patients. Your gift will be directed to our highest priority needs. For questions or more information, please visit the University of Rochester Medical Center website.

Make a gift »