

Crystal Whitney, MD
Trauma Critical Care Fellow
Erie County Medical Center - Level 1 Trauma Center

Crystal Whitney is the current SUNY Department of Surgery Fellow for Trauma and Critical Care at the Erie County Medical Center Level I Trauma Center in Buffalo NY. In her Fellowship role, she is responsible for ongoing resident education in the Trauma Intensive Care Unit, as well as, active participation on several hospital committees that focus on process improvement and best practices in trauma and critical care. Dr. Whitney is a native of upstate New York, completing her medical and doctorate degrees at Upstate Medical University in Syracuse. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Biochemistry from Syracuse University where she graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2007.