

Rob Johnson, MS, CHECII
Sr. Director, System Emergency Preparedness
Rochester Regional Health

Current Sr. Director, System Emergency Preparedness for Rochester Regional Health with a focus on continuous systemization and improvement to mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery activities. Recently coordinated research and purchase of new Powered Air Purifying Respirator Systems (PAPRS) for the Rochester General Hospital Decontamination Team.

- Graduate of Jacksonville State University with a Master of Science in Emergency Management.

- Prior work experience includes:
 - Fire Protection Specialist/State Fire Instructor for the New York State Office of Fire Prevention and Control with instructor authorizations for Hazardous Materials Awareness, Hazardous Materials Operations, and annual Hazardous Materials Operations Refresher training courses.

 - United States Department of Veterans Affairs Firefighter with Hazardous Materials Operations Level National Certification (Department of Defense/Pro Board) and New York State Hazardous Materials Technician Certification.

Duties included hazardous materials offensive and defensive product control and decontamination operations.