

William Hallinan, RN, MSBA
Trauma Program Manager
University of Rochester Medical Center

Bill Hallinan is the Trauma Program Manager at the Kessler Trauma Center at the University of Rochester. Nurse Hallinan is a graduate of SUNY Brockport and from the Simon School of Business with his Master's in Business Administration. He is currently the Asst. Fire Chief in the Spencerport Fire District, a Rescue Specialist with the Monroe County Special Operations Unit and a Nurse with the U.S Dept. of Health and Human Services DMAT-NY 6 team. He previously had been a Chief Paramedic and the Clinical Director of the Artificial Heart Program at the University of Rochester. He is a member of the NYS Association of Fire Chiefs EMS Committee and the NYS Trauma Advisory Committee. He was the recipient of the 2009 American Association of Critical Care Nurses Circle of Excellence Award.