

HEALTH HUMANITIES & BIOETHICS COURSES & CLERKSHIPS PHASES 3-4

PHASE 3 Courses

Bed to Bench- Considering Organ Transplantation for Donor and Recipients- Readers' Theatre

Bed to Bench - Ethical and Medical Malpractice

Bed to Bench - Ethical Issues and Decision Making in Medicine and Surgery

Sex to Selections - Legal and Ethical Issues in OB/GYN and PEDS

PHASE 4 Courses

Process of Discovery - Creativity and Innovation in Scientific Research

Process of Discovery - Personal Perspectives and the Process in Scientific Research

Successful Interning - Narratives

Successful Interning - Advocating for your patient

Successful Interning - Ethical Dilemmas During Internship

Successful Interning - Successful Interning: On Becoming a Doctor and the 55 word story

Clerkship Integration

Death and Dying in Pediatrics Palliative Care and system Issues

The Diving Bell and the Butterfly: The meaning of a good life

ELECTIVES

Faculty teach a number of electives for students in Phase 3 and Phase 4.

Electives

MHU950 - Special Projects in Medical Humanities & Arts

MHU950 - Reproductive Justice

MHU 602 - Clinical Ethics

MHU 603 - Clinical Ethics Research

MHU 615 - Creative or Research Projects