

TWO-YEAR PUBLIC HEALTH PHARMACY FELLOWSHIP

ST. JOHN FISHER UNIVERSITY AND UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER MEDICAL CENTER

A unique program providing pharmacists the opportunity to engage in clinical practice, research, advocacy, and teaching. Focus areas include public health and ambulatory care pharmacy. Immersive experience, with dedicated time spent in clinical practice, scholarship, community outreach and initiatives, education, and leadership.

FELLOWSHIP DIRECTOR

Kelly Conn, PhD, MPH

Associate Professor
Wegmans School
of Pharmacy
St. John Fisher University

OPPORTUNITIES INCLUDE:

- Patient care
- Scholarship
- Community initiatives
- Quality improvement programming
- Outreach and education
- State and local advocacy
- International and domestic service trip opportunities
- Leadership training

APPLY HERE!

MORE INFORMATION?

Contact Kelly Conn
kconn@sjfc.edu

