

Laura Converse, PA

Laura has a special interest in preventative medicine, health maintenance, and prompt care for acute issues.

She believes that patients need to be active participants in their health care, and Laura strives to assist and empower patients in navigating our complex healthcare system. She believes in the importance of patient centered care, and works closely with the physicians to provide high quality medical care.

Laura enjoys traveling and spending her summer weekends in the Thousand islands.